Vlad Veryagin.

Let it be.

When I find myself in times of trouble,
Mother Mary comes to me
speaking words of wisdom, let it be.

And in my hour of darkness
she is standing right in front of me
speaking words of wisdom, let it be.

Let it be, let it be, let it be, let it be.
Whisper words of wisdom, let it be.

And when the broken hearted people
living in the world agree,
there will be an answer, let it be.

For though they may be parted,
there is still a chance that they will see
there will be an answer, let it be.

Let it be, let it be, let it be, let it be.
There will be an answer, let it be.

Let it be, let it be, let it be, let it be.
There will be an answer, let it be.

Let it be, let it be, let it be, let it be.
There will be an answer, let it be.

And when the night is cloudy,
there is still a light that shines on me.
Shines until tomorrow, let it be.

I wake up to the sound of music.
Mother Mary comes to me
speaking words of wisdom, let it be.

Let it be, let it be, let it be, let it be.
Whisper words of wisdom, let it be.

Let it be, let it be, let it be, let it be.
Whisper words of wisdom, let it be.

Let it be, let it be, let it be, let it be.
There will be an answer, let it be.

Jamal won the award Eurostory Award 2016 for the best place in the contest "Eurovision". Presenting this award is initiated by the Dutch site www.eurostory.nl. Winner determined professional writers jury. A line from the song "1944," which marked the jury is as follows: You think you are gods, but everyone dies.

Lyrics Jamala "1944"
When strangers are coming...
They come to your house,
They kill you all
and say,
We're not guilty
not guilty.
Where is your mind?
Humanity cries.
You think you are gods.
But everyone dies.
Don't swallow my soul.
Our souls

Yaşlığıma toyalmadım
Men bu yerde yaşalmadım
Yaşlığıma toyalmadım
Men bu yerde yaşalmadım

We could build a future
Where people are free
to live and love.
The happiest time.
Where is your heart?
Humanity rise.
You think you are gods
But everyone dies.
Don't swallow my soul.
Our souls

Yaşlığıma toyalmadım
Men bu yerde yaşalmadım
Yaşlığıma toyalmadım
Men bu yerde yaşalmadım

vatanıma toyalmadım

ENGLISH-SPEAKING COUNTRIES

Several nations, like India, Ireland, New Zealand, Canada and the Philippines, use English as an official language but not the sole official language. In Australia, English is spoken by the vast majority of the population and is the only language used in government institutions, yet Australia does not have an official language. This is the same in the U.S. and the UK, although some states or regions within the UK and the U.S. have English as an official language. The status of English as a country's official language does not necessarily correlate with the number of English-speakers in that country. India, for example, with a population of 1.1 billion, has fewer than 200,000 native speakers of English and approximately 100 million second-language English speakers (who form less than 10% of its population). Nigeria on the other hand, has a small percentage of Standard English second-language speakers; however, more than 60% of its population speaks Nigerian Pidgin English, which although not a dialect of English, does contain many English words and possesses an English-like grammatical structure. Almost all of these countries are current or former colonies or dependencies of the UK (British Empire). The notable exceptions are Madagascar, which is a former French colony with English speaking neighbours, and the Philippines, which is a former U.S. dependency. India's linguistic picture is complex. According to the Constitution of India, "Hindi in the Devanagari script" is the official language of the union and English the 'subsidiary official language'; however, English is mandated for the authoritative texts of all federal laws and Supreme Court decisions, and (along with Hindi) is one of the two languages of the Indian Parliament. See Official languages of India. These nations total 2.135 billion people, cover 15,583,152 square miles, and have a combined GDP of about 18 trillion US dollars.
